AMERICA CELEBRATES 250 YEARS...

HARRY & PANG...

NEWPORT BEACH, CA – ...spent the weekend in Newport Beach. The afternoon was spent at a friend of Harry Rinker's, where Pang took a work call. The nation turned 250. Pang took a work call.

ELI, AUGGIE, & GAVIN...

JERSEY SHORE, NJ – ...spent the weekend at Carol's rental. A touchy subject. Gavin confirmed he received Donnie's blessing.

LEN'S CLASSIC EXCUSE...

STUDIO CITY, CA – ...spent the weekend at his cousin's birthday, as he always does. The birthday is annual. So is the excuse.

ASHWIN RHODES IS...

...A CHEF

BALTIMORE, MD – Ashwin Rhodes hosted a dinner and served braised short rib, English cut, fall off the bone tender, with bottles of wine and port going into the pot rather than into the cooks. Reviews were unanimous. It was exquisite. The dinner was not the story. The night before, Ashwin was cooking with his cousins when a pan holding too much milk and butter boiled over inside the oven and set it on fire. An actual fire, in an actual oven, in an actual home in Baltimore. The response was immediate: open every window in the house, extinguish, then scrub. Repairs to the oven were completed at 2 AM. The night wrapped around 5 AM. The smoke alarm did not sound until 5 AM, at the very end of the night, long after the fire it was installed to detect had been resolved by hand. No unit has been named in the incident report. The oven survived. The short rib was worth it.

...A TRAVELER

SOUTH OF FRANCE – Ashwin traveled to a small town in the south of France for a wedding. The family hosting divides the year between La Jolla in the winter and France in the summer, which the Stag Times has confirmed is legal. Our correspondent describes the setting as nothing for miles in any direction, just land, in the manner of a Tarantino film shortly before something happens. Nothing happened. Instead, there was champagne, which Ashwin reports as the best he has had in his life, a claim he made without qualification and has not walked back. The night before the wedding, the hosts had the Rhodes family over for dinner. It was delicious. Between this and the Baltimore short rib, the Stag Times notes that Ashwin's summer consisted almost entirely of eating extremely well in rooms he did not have to book.

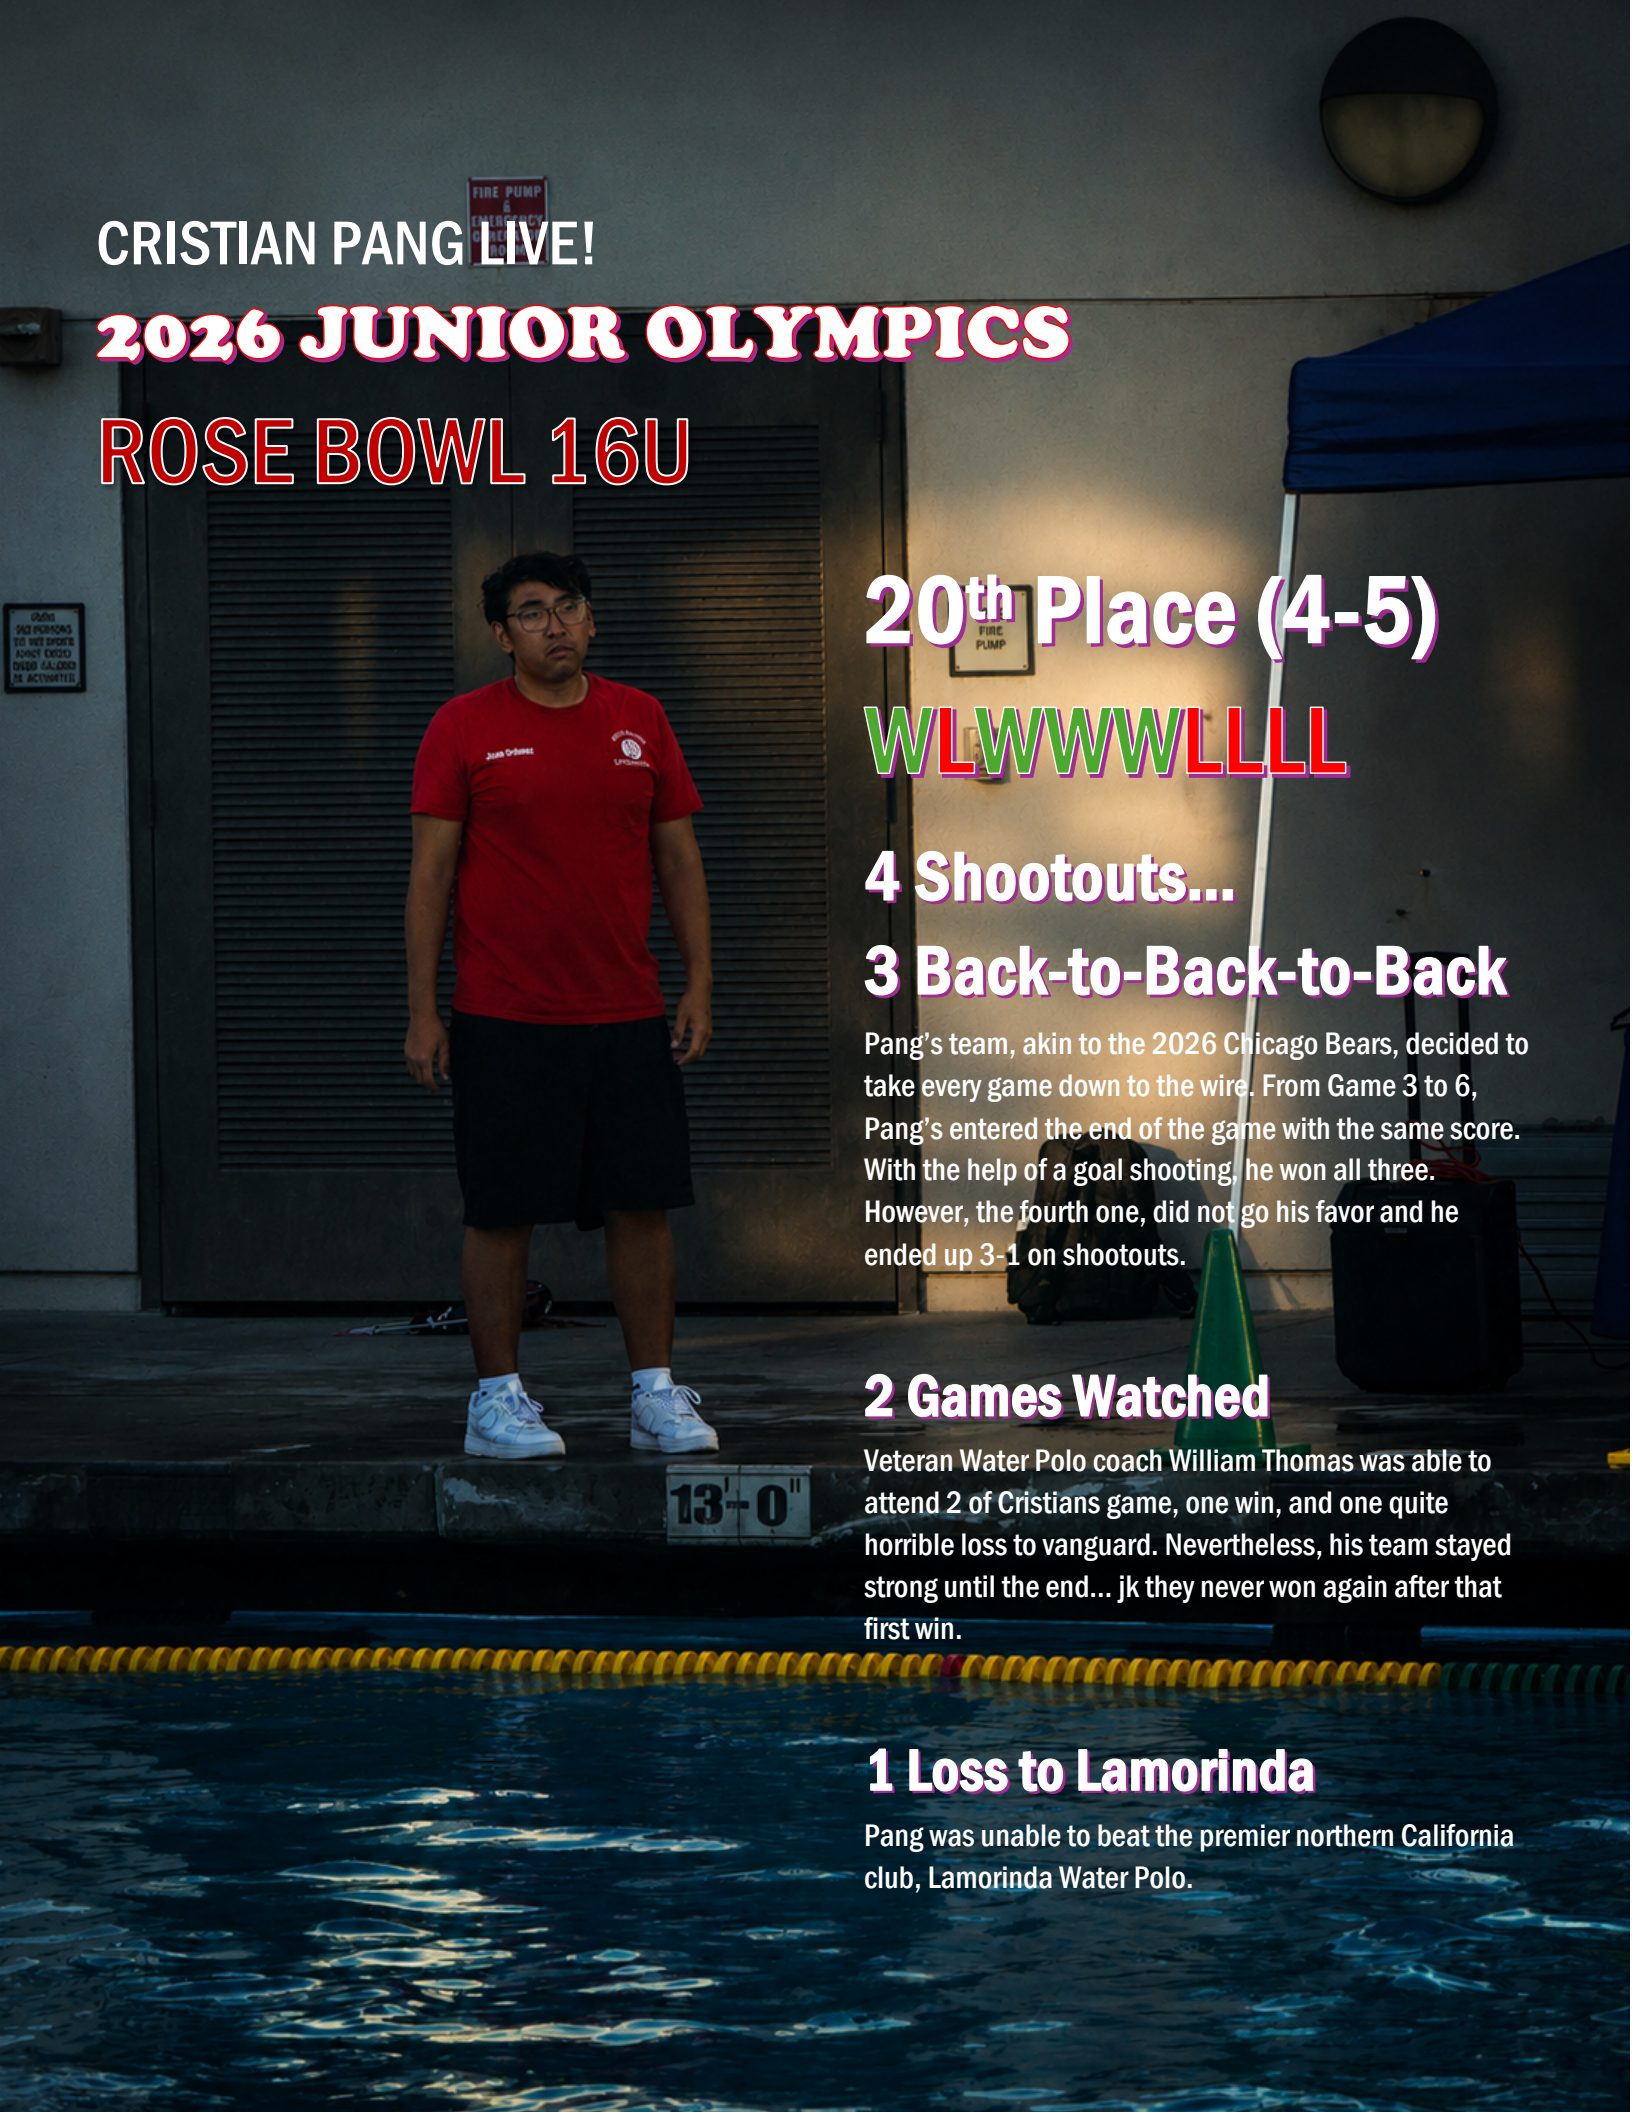

...A DOCTORIAL CANDIDANTE... MAYBE

CLAREMONT, CA – As we all know, he also pursuing a PhD... if CGU stays open. Stay tuned.

CRISTIAN PANG LIVE!

2026 JUNIOR OLYMPICS

ROSE BOWL 16U

20th Place (4-5)

WLWWWLLLL

4 Shootouts...

3 Back-to-Back-to-Back

Pang's team, akin to the 2026 Chicago Bears, decided to take every game down to the wire. From Game 3 to 6, Pang's entered the end of the game with the same score. With the help of a goal shooting, he won all three. However, the fourth one, did not go his favor and he ended up 3-1 on shootouts.

2 Games Watched

Veteran Water Polo coach William Thomas was able to attend 2 of Cristians game, one win, and one quite horrible loss to vanguard. Nevertheless, his team stayed strong until the end... jk they never won again after that first win.

1 Loss to Lamorinda

Pang was unable to beat the premier northern California club, Lamorinda Water Polo.

OTHER STORIES

GAVIN ROSSER IN CALIFORNIA, TELLS NO ONE

CALIFORNIA, July 2026. Gavin Rosser, who tries works “remotely” for a bank in a in person job, spent four days of July demonstrating exactly how remotely. He set up in Los Angeles, put in his four days, and then flew to Oakland for family time at sea ranch.

The itinerary is worth appreciating. A man employed by a financial institution logged a full stretch of business days from Southern California, closed his laptop, and relocated to a house in sea ranch in Northern California. The bank was not informed of this visit. Nevertheless, the Bank still received a fully functional Gavin and neither was told what the other was getting.

The real sad part is Gavin elected not to tell William, Aidan, Harry, Len, or Ashwin of his trip.

"STILL ALL MANUFACTURING," INSISTS MAN WHO WORKS AT APPLE

BAY AREA, CA, July and August 2026. Aidan has left the defense industry for the fruit company. He started at Apple on July 20 and completed the move north on August 9, spending the twenty days between as a man employed by Cupertino while remaining physically loyal to Southern California. He has resolved the conflict in favor of the region that pays him.

LEN KOROL TAKES AUGGIE'S ROOM

NEW YORK, NY, September 2026. It is settled. Len Korol is moving to New York to start a new job, and he is taking Auggie's spot in the apartment. This is a real transfer of property. Auggie held that room. Len will hold that room.

The Stag Times has made repeated attempts to establish how many nights per week Natalie will be present at the residence. Len has repeatedly declined to produce a number. The apartment has not been consulted. The other tenants are described as aware.
